MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

A detention hearing has been held in accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). The following requires detention of the defendant pending trial in this case:

- (1) There is probable cause to believe the defendant committed an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 21 U.S.C. § 924(c); and
- (2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.

The evidence against the defendant meets the probable cause standard. The findings and conclusions contained in the Pretrial Services Report are adopted, supplemented by the testimony of Deputy Marshal Eugene Robinson and the exhibits received into evidence. The defendant resisted attempts by the Marshal to arrest him at a residence where numerous firearms, including assault weapons, were present. During the arrest, defendant attempted to gain access to those weapons. The offense charged in the district of prosecution involves allegations that the defendant supplied protection and assistance to known felons. Defendant made statements that he would lay down his life to protect those known felons. He is both a flight risk and a danger to the community.

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

ORDERED this 17th day of September, 2007.
